THE EMPEROR'S WOUNDS.
BERLIN, June 7.—The shot in the left arm of the Emperor include one bullet, which on account of its size, may have to be extracted, while the smaller shot will be allowed to remain.

FALSE REPORT.
It is untrue that Nobling has been operated on.

THE PUBLIC FEELING.
LONDON, June 7.—The following facts and rumors show the state of public feeling in Germany. The editor and manager of a newspaper at Galschen has been arrested for the publication of Socialistic writings.

A committee has been formed in Berlin to purchase house No. 18, Unter der Linden, and to convert it into a place of religious worship.

Numerous manufacturers have resolved to discharge all their workmen attending Socialistic meetings. Between twenty and thirty persons have been arrested in various towns for expressing regret at the failure of Nobling to kill the emperor. At Brunswick and Bamberg men have been arrested charged with telling beforehand of Nobling's attempt. At Wilhelmshaven men have been arrested charged with predicting the day beforehand that the Koenig Wilhelm would sink the Grosser Kurfirst.

Such, says a Berlin correspondent, are the statements now going the rounds of the German press.

NORBLING'S CONDITION.
Some newspaper announces that Nobling's condition has improved, and that there is some prospect of his recovery, but the story of a surgical operation is false and so also seems to be the circumstantial account of his admissions in the presence of his mother and the police about his accomplishes and the drawing of lots to determine who should undertake the assassination of the emperor. The National Gazette says when Nobling's mother reached the prison he was already unconscious and has been so ever since. Persons who knew Nobling intimately at the hall said he had often fits of insanity. The Kieth Gazette says, while at Dresden Nobling was suddenly seized with the idea he had found a solution of the eastern question and started for London, declaring his determination to submit a plan to the British Government. A London telegraph says we have authority to state that the rumors about Nobling's connection with Socialist conspirators in England and about the part taken by the English police in communicating alleged facts to German authorities are entirely baseless. There is some evidence that Nobling was an extreme Social Democrat, but the Kieth Gazette and English press have evidence that he had made arrangements, which preclude the presumption of any premeditated plan to shoot the Emperor. Scotland Yard detectives have a letter written by Nobling two days before his attempt against the life of the Emperor which shows no such purpose was present in his mind. The view taken by the police of Berlin, as well as London, is that Nobling, though in perfect possession of his reasoning faculties, suffered himself to become a creature of passion and diabolical impulses. They discredit the story of the drawing of lots. Another significant fact is there were a dozen empty beer glasses on Nobling's table when the crowd broke in his room, which the servant said he had never seen there before.

RUPEYIA A REPUBLIC.
New York, June 7.—A special from London says private letters received from Berlin speak of the feeling as very profoundly disturbed. No one ventures to speak freely in extenuation of Nobling's crime; but in private men say the country is ripe for a republic. France, now under Republican rule, is prosperous, rich and happy. Germany, under the empire, is poor, depressed and wretched. Worse still, the alliance between the czar and the emperor is dangerous. Germany may find herself dragged into a war with which she has no concern.

She is kept with her hand on her sword and her people, with many of whom it is difficult to get bread to eat, are compelled to maintain an immense army. The popularity of the crown prince is nothing compared with that of the emperor. Should the latter die, a republican revolution might be attempted.

GAINING STRENGTH.
BERLIN, June 7.—The emperor's strength is increasing. The swelling of the right arm is subsiding. The condition of the other wounds is normal. There are no symptoms of fever.

IN THE INTEREST OF ORDER.
The ministry of state is considering measures for the immediate interest of order and public security and also what measures shall be submitted to the Federal council.

POWERS FOR PROTECTING THE DYNASTY.
BERLIN, June 7.—The National Gazette, the organ of the Liberals, says: "If the government comes before the Reichstag asking extraordinary powers to protect the dynasty and country, we are convinced that such powers will be readily granted by a majority of the Reichstag, the government, of course, accepting the responsibility for the necessity of such powers and their continual application."

MOTION OF DISOLUTION.
BERLIN, June 7.—Prussia yesterday submitted to the Federal council a motion signed by Bismarck, proposing a dissolution of the Reichstag. The motion points out that in view of a second attempt on the life of the emperor, the government's responsibility for the maintenance of order does not permit them to rest content with having merely introduced a former abortive anti-socialist bill, but they cannot count upon another bill which they intend to introduce meeting with better success in the existing Reichstag. The government, the motion says, does not wish to restrict any free and legal movement.

THE LATEST.
An official bulletin at 6:30 says that the emperor slept calmly during the afternoon.
His appetite has not improved. Remembering that to-day is the anniversary of his father's death, he was in a depressed and prostrate condition.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.
Nobling again attempted suicide, but was prevented by the guards.

Four students have been arrested, charged with complicity in the attempt to assassinate the emperor.

It is asserted Germany has invited the Powers to consider necessary measures for checking the conspirators located abroad.

STATE OF CONSTERNATION.
LONDON, June 7.—A special from Berlin states that the dissolution of the Reichstag is as good as accomplished, the assent of the Federal Council being certain. The Liberals are in a state of consternation.
The government will, pending the new elections, take the most extreme measures allowed by the law to meet the great Social crisis. It appears that a state of siege has been under discussion, but will not be proclaimed at present.

A soldier has been stabbed at Dantzig and sentries fired upon.

A Paris correspondent asserts that Prince Hohenlohe, German Ambassador to France, will be second plenipotentiary of Germany to the Congress.

CUBA.
SURRENDER OF THE INSURGENTS.

NEW YORK, June 7.—A Havana letter says the last reports from the Eastern Department show a further surrender of ten chiefs, twenty-four officers and 190 men at San Luis, and a complete dissolution of the so-called new government instituted by Maceo in that department. Festivities for celebrating the peace, upon the arrival of Gen. Martinez Campos, will last four days.
The following is the number of Insurgents surrendered in Cincos Villas, Larochea, and the Central department since the proclamation of the peace conditions: Eleven generals, 127 chiefs, 420 officers, 5,887 men and 3,577 members of families. Total, 10, 018 persons. Those who surrendered in the Eastern Department are not included.

THE WAR ENDED.
HAVANA, June 7.—The war in the island of Cuba is finished. The Insurrection is entirely at an end. Vicente Garcia will leave the island for St. Thomas. All the insurgents in the eastern department have laid down their arms. General Martinez Cam-pos is expected at Havana in a few days when peace will be officially proclaimed.
Proclamations to the soldiers and inhabitants of the island will be issued shortly.
Captain-General Jovillar will soon depart for Spain. Martinez Campos remaining as Captain General. Great festivities in celebration of peace.

JAMES E. ANDERSON DEFENDED.
A CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN SUPPORTS ITS ASSISTANT EDITOR.

From the Philadelphia North American Union.
Secretary Sherman does not think he wrote the letter to Weber and Anderson.
The rest of the country will generally think that he did.

Make no mistake in weighing the testimony of James E. Anderson. No man ever occupying a position of honor and trust ever risks making himself the target for obloquy and vituperation for the pleasure of lying.
His story is not a pleasant one, but rest assured it is true.

Mr. Anderson's testimony is confirmation of a prevalent belief that purity was a thing unknown in Louisiana politics. We do not excuse any of the wrongs to which he was a party; but their existence and his acquiescence are surely to be wondered at when we read of the atmosphere of evil by which he was surrounded.

SMOKERS. If you wish a fine "Key West" or "Imported" cigar, call at Kornsmeier's cigar store. It is the only place in the city almost daily in receipt of fresh goods.

A GRAND SWING.

FIVE NEGROES LYNCHED IN LOUISI-ANA FOR AN ATTEMPTED AS-SASSINATION.

A Band of Cut-Throats Discovered Whose Avowed Object was Murder.

NEW ORLEANS, June 7.—A Democratic special from Bayou Sara says: On Sunday night last, as Dr. Wm. B. Archer was returning to his home from Major Barton's, about 10 o'clock p. m., he was fired on by six negro men who were lying in the bushes waiting for him. Five of the negroes and double barreled guns and one musket.
Dr. Archer was on horseback and riding on top of a levee. The assassins were concealed behind two very large cottonwood trees standing within a few feet of the levee, and all of the negroes fired as the Doctor was passing the trees, his clothes being riddled with bullet holes and he was thrown from his horse, but fortunately not much injured. The assassins took to their heels, running in different directions, but it was ascertained who the parties were who had attempted the foul act, and on Tuesday morning a large number of citizens collected at Racconet, where the act was committed. A jury of twelve of our best citizens, most of them old gray headed men was chosen, who after a lengthy and thorough examination found the prisoners, five in number, one having made his escape, guilty of shooting at Dr.
B. W. Archer, with intent to kill. Many witnesses were examined, all colored, and two of the prisoners were allowed to make their statements, having requested permission to do so. They stated that they intended to kill Dr. Archer on Sunday night, and after making way with him, they were to kill Mr. Lejeune, Mr.
William Piquet and Frank Burton. They stated also that they belonged to an organization club, the object of which was to kill the leading white men in the country and establish a nation of their own. They gave the names of many members, names of their president and vice-president, and a general expose of their plans.

After the examination closed the prisoners were conducted to a shady grove by the citizens present, and after mature deliberation it was resolved to turn them over to the law. The prisoners were placed in charge of a party and started in the direction of the court-house, but had not proceeded far before they were taken by force and all five of them hung.

Racconet is in point Coupee parish. At this hour, 11 p. m., Governor Nichols has heard nothing of this trouble.

GREAT BRITAIN.

ENGLAND'S VIEWS.
LONDON, June 7.—It is said that England and Russia have come to a preliminary agreement with regard to the terms of the treaty. Count Schouvaloff is taking to St.
Petersburg information relative to Great Britain's views which will enable Russia to decide about instructions to give her plenipotentiaries.

FRANCE'S ANSWER.
VERSAILLES, June 7.—In the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon, the Minister of Foreign Affairs in answer to the interpellation on the Eastern question read the reply of the French government to the invitation to the Congress to participate on condition that the discussion be confined to questions immediately raised by the war. The Minister assured the Deputies that the maintenance of peace is almost certain.
The Chamber unanimously expressed approval of the Minister's statement.

THE OAKS STAKES.
LONDON, June 7.—The Oaks Stakes was won by Lord Palmouth's Jannette; Pilgrimage, second; Clementine, third.

THE STRIKERS.
LONDON, June 7.—At Maltcheste to-day the opinion prevailed that the cotton strike would be terminated at the end of next week.

AN EXPLOSION.
In a coal pit at Haydock to-day shook the earth for miles around. The first explorer descended the shaft five minutes after the explosion, and others followed. Ten men were rescued and sent to the surface. One died almost immediately and the others suffered much from after damp. Eight other men are alive, and have taken refuge in a working of the mine. Two hundred and thirty-two are dead. The explorers state that they found bodies decapitated, reduced to shapeless masses, and some of them blown to pieces. It is expected the corpses will be brought up by midnight.
A large crowd of men, women and children surround the mouth of the pit. The cause of the explosion is unknown, as blasting with naked lights is prohibited.

LONDON, June 7.—A fearful explosion occurred in the Evans collieries near St.
Helens, Lancashire. Three hundred persons are reported killed.

A later dispatch says that the number of men in the pit at the time is variously estimated at from 200 to 250. Several have been brought up badly injured. A large proportion are believed to be killed, but it is impossible to explore the mine in consequence of fire damp.

WHAT CAUSED ALL THE TROUBLE.

From the Baltimore Gazette.
Mr. James M. Anderson, late of Feliciana Parish, Louisiana, and Supervisor by trade, may be a rascal and all that. He probably is. An honest man could hardly have done what he did in the matter of forged returns.
But Mr. Anderson's intimate relations with Secretary Sherman, Senator Matthews and Judge Harlan, and his correspondence with these representatives of Mr. Hayes, demonstrates beyond question that his services were recognized. The failure to reward the knave has caused all the trouble. In view of John Sherman's long and and peculiar career it is really surprising that he should have overlooked the importance of providing for his accomplices. There is nothing goes so far towards insuring the success of crime as for criminals to stand together and share alike.

This fruit came from A. Halley's, both wholesale and retail, at bottom prices.
